1 million. So he still had to come up with that $700,000 once the 2 transaction had gone through.

3 when he purchased the Saint Kitts property, in his 4 Saint Kitts application, which included a summary of one of his 5 wallets, cryptowallets that starts with "One Jobe", he indicated 6 that it had a final balance of $3.6 million on March 1, 2018 and 7 over the course of its existence had received more than $560
8 million. In an e-mail to the second citizenship concierge
9 company that Mr. Weeks enlisted in an effort to obtain Saint 10 Kitts citizenship he wrote, quote, "the funds I used to buy the 11 property and pay you came from me selling Bitcoins. I try to 12 keep my money out of the banks and in Bitcoin instead. That's 13 why the bank account has such a low balance all the time. What 14 should we do? I don't like or trust banks and I'm not a fan of 15 fiat money. This is one of my Bitcoin addresses", and he names 16 the One Jobe wallet. "I think I've run through $62 million in 17 the last year selling computer equipment that mines Bitcoin.
18 Now you know why I don't want my US passport anymore. Imagine 19 the tax liability", exclamation point.

20 we do not believe, Your Honor, that he did obtain 21 citizenship in Saint Kitts, although he did attempt to.

22 After that --

23 THE COURT: That statement where you say he said "I 24 don't want my US passport anymore", where is that contained 25 within?
